

School violence – Almost unheard of until the 1980's, school violence incidents are now happening several times a year across the country. How were they handled in other areas? How would your center react if one occurred today? Several specific incidents are discussed in detail. Learn how your center can help to lessen the casualty count once the incident occurs.